MUHAMMAD, Mujahid
Docket No. 2:04cr20512-B
Attachment

Defendant Muhammad has violated his bond by being arrested on November 9, 2005, by Memphis Police Department for Possession of a Controlled Substance With Intent to Manufacture/Deliver/Sell (felony).

According to the arrest report, "the arresting officer was on routine patrol at 1428 Briercree, Memphis, Tennessee when he observed Defendant Muhammad and another individual in a 1996 maroon Sonata. Officer noticed Defendant Muhammad to be on the criminal trespass list. The arresting officer then noticed defendant and co-defendant throw two objects from the vehicle containing a green leafy substance, which was later tested positive for THC (24.1 grams). Both Defendant Muhammad and the other individual were placed into custody on the scene."

Defendant Muhammad remains in the Shelby County Jail unable to make a $20,000 bond. His next court date is December 1, 2005, in General Sessions Court, Division 8. The pending federal case has been reset to the second week of the December trial rotation, December 12 - 16, 2005, before Your Honor.
